

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

THE DOUG GEIGER MEMORIAL COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Available to Current Seniors | 2021-2022 Academic Year

The On Stage Playhouse is pleased to announce The Doug Geiger Memorial College Scholarship to support and encourage students in their further education. This award was created in honor and memory of Doug Geiger.

Doug Geiger (1942 – 2021) served on the On Stage Board of Directors for many years and worked tirelessly to support On Stage’s mission to entertain, inspire, and engage audiences with live performances. Doug was a performer on stage and an advocate off stage for On Stage, Inc. Doug used his marketing expertise to promote the theatre and made everyone around him strive to be better. The mark he leaves on On Stage will be forever cherished.

Aims – The principal aim of this scholarship program is to offer financial support to a current senior student and to encourage them to continue their education.

Qualifications - To apply for the Doug Geiger Memorial College Scholarship, a student:

- Must be a current senior in high school
- Must be accepted into a college
- Must have participated in an On Stage production

Scholarship Award Amount – The total distribution for the Doug Geiger Memorial College Scholarship will be determined based on the Education Committee’s evaluation of the applications submitted. The 2021-2022 academic year scholarship will be awarded in the amount of $500.00.

Use of Scholarships – Scholarship awards may be applied toward tuition, fees, or other costs directly related to undergraduate study of any field (does not have to be an arts field).

Basis of Award – The Education Committee, composed of members of The On Stage Board of Directors, will make the final selection of students to receive a scholarship based on their review of the application.

How To Apply – The Education Committee requests applicants complete the application form and submit a 500 words or less essay answering the provided prompt. The application can be found at www.OnStageWalton.org. The application should be submitted digitally by emailing the completed application form and essay to OnStageWaltonBoard@gmail.com.
